If one was forced to pick the strongest one...

It would be me,of course.I'm the protagonist,remember?. This is were it became masked forces....

there are multiplayer lobbies still but everyone changes teams to the winning one so if the other team is loosing just switch to them and then it will be you vs. the whole lobby the game is still easy though. if you stay in an open part of the map to dodge rockets with the MP5 you can kill anyone before they get to you with RPG spam.

you can have fun if you are even moderately good at aiming 5/10. Started a little bit bland, but after a few rounds I started to really like it! It's a weird kinda-turn-based game.. \u00a1\u00a1 Very funny!!

Great for playing at home with friends

You have to keep the monocycle in balance and push your rival down to the ground.

I'd say it is a mix of QWOP and NIDHOGG.. didnt got it

Another great skin, but I still want my heli and dartling skins.. The game is good in essence with solid mechanics and interesting start of a story. But it has too many problems:

- It's way too short (I finished in 11 h including lengthy dialogues and loading screens)
- Loading times are ridiculously long. And you have to start at main menu every time (loading screen to get to it, and another to get into game) and also exit through main menu (again 2 loading screens).
- The game saves at weird times (at the start of major combat round), there is no excuse for not being able to save single-player game at any time.
- No strong enemies, just cannon fodder.
- Battles are scripted, you know exactly where the enemies are gonna pop out during the second try.
- Story doesn't end, it doesn't even get anywhere
- There is literally 1 choice in the entire game
- Guilty of numerous instances of "second HP bar" (Extra enemies appear on battlefield in the middle of battle all the time). It's Pang on steroids, it has a beautiful art, excellent OST, is full of winks to retro games, and the different world really capture the essence of the game tributing, and now in ver 2.0 includes Coop Campaign for 2 players. The difficulty is (in normal) is perfect, not too hard to be frustrating nor too easy to be boring. It's full of funny anti-achievements.. Zorbit's Orbits feels like someone's first flash game. Jump, shoot, and grapple your way across spherical alien...structures? I guess? The whole game has a sort of 80s or 90s feel to it, with a cool guy blasting aliens and all.

There are five difficulties, and collectible cogs and rocks. It's a simple game, and the only gripes I have about it are the odd default controls (which can be changed) and the somewhat...lackluster grappling mechanic. Jumping is floaty, but manageable, but if you don't swing at least a little on a grapple point, you may not make it to the next one.

Zorbit's Orbits is a simple game, and I can't condemn it past the grappling thing. I'm pretty neutral towards it, so decide for yourself if you want it.. Very interesting game. It's got a little bit of everything in it, even though its a puzzle type game, but hey, I would recommend it as something different to play.. Fun little treasure hunting game, even scared me once :D

I always wanted to explore ancient egyptian pyramids so perhaps Im a little biased.

Its not finished yet but whats there is good and for the price there's no question that its a thumbs up.. Dead Game is Dead. I think this is a great first game from a female developer. Let's support girls' STEM pursuits.. Next chapter after the main game. Linear gameplay. No open world. Recommended if you want to know what will happen after the ending.
