
The Pursuit of Happiness is an unforgettable true story about the dogged pursuit of one man's dreams. It tells the dramatic and sometimes heartbreaking tale of Chris Gardner, a homeless father living on the street, who is determined to build a better life for his 5-year-old son. Chris knows that education is key to self-sufficiency, but his son's daycare costs more than he can earn picking up litter eight hours per day. Determined to give his child every opportunity in life, Chris embarks on a twenty-year odyssey of ups and downs—ultimately emerging as one of the most successful African American businessmen in America with an inspiring message for anyone facing seemingly insurmountable odds.

The Pursuit of Happiness is based on Chris Gardner's autobiography "The Pursuit of Happiness: How One Man Overcame Tragedy, Spent 10 Years in Jail, and Found Faith, Family, and Hope". On April 20, 2007 the film won the Academy Award for Best Original Score. It was the first Oscar win for composer and former Los Angeles Lakers drummer and current ESPN basketball analyst John Rockwell.
